

Together, we learn and grow

Dear Parents & Carers,

A Royal Occasion

As a way of providing your child with an opportunity to find out what life was like during Tudor times, we have organised an immersive history day on Friday 14th July 2023. This will be during the normal school day and will take place at school. There will be no cost for this day.

From the start of the day children will imagine themselves living in Tudor times, just like Queen Elizabeth I. They will, through a wide range of cross-curricular activities, experience life as it would have been living under Queen Elizabeth I's rule.

Your child may wish to dress up in a simple (Tudor) costume which will help them to really feel part of the day. Please see the next page for costume ideas. However, a low-cost costume can be made at home e.g. by combining a long T-shirt, trousers/skirt, and a belt.

Please note: As the pupils will be taking on the role of townsfolk and retinue of the castle weapons and armour are not appropriate.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Robinson
